W. P. WALTON.

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Two more of the "Judge's" dear children sent to the lock up!
—Some of Bobbitt's most enthusiastic friends upon the close of the polls, gathered in the centre of town and soon had a considerable bonfire ablaze, and the firing of anvils was kept up for some time.

—Frank Fish, of color, was arrested by Marshal Saunders last Tuesday, charged with a breach of the peace by striking Henry Johnson, another "gentleman of color," over the head with a switch. Fish was taken before E. J. Bronaugh and was fined $2.50, which was paid by the defendant and he was allowed to depart in peace.

—Duck Nelson, an inoffensive old negro when sober, had a lemonade and ginger cake stand in town on election day. It is reported that a negro wench who lately arrived here from Tennessee visited Duck's stand during the afternoon and proceeded to help herself to lemonade. When Duck protested against such procedure she slapped his jaw, and he grabbed his knife, gave her a punch in the back, probably harder than he intended. She fell to the ground and was carried off by some darkies who were near by. Drs. Dacres and Graham made an examination of the wound which they considered quite serious. It is said she had convulsions during the night, but public opinion seems to be divided as to whether it was convulsions or drunken hysteria, as she was considerably under the influence of the "serifus" when subdued, as well as Duck. Duck was taken before Judge Carson, when he waived an examination and was placed under $200 bail and upon his failure to give the bail was ordered to jail. Bill Jones, another young gentleman of African descent, was caught by Marshal Saunders with a pistol in his pocket on the evening of the election. He was promptly lodged in the jail for the night. When taken before Police Judge Carson next morning he pleaded guilty and was let off with the lowest fine of $25, and ten days in jail.

—The election was one of the quietest that ever took place in Crab Orchard. No disturbances except among the colored brigade, very little interest taken in any race except for representative and the local races of constable and police judge. At the opening of the polls there were three candidates for constable, S. M. Carson and H. B. Farris, democrats, and "Uncle John Joslin," republican. Early in the action Farris and Carson saw that "Uncle John" would have a walk over without one of them coming off. And the old time custom of drawing straws was resorted to. Farris was the lucky man, having pulled the longest straw. And Carson gracefully withdrew, throwing his influence to Farris. Although the combined efforts of the two young democrats was put forth to defeat the old war-horse, he was never headed. Ten blocks in his palatial days could not hold the light for "Uncle John," especially for constable in the C. O. precinct, and the old man came out an easy winner, by the vote of both democrats and republicans of 210 to 65.

—A. Carson, the present incumbent and G. W. Deburde, our popular blacksmith, were on the board for police judge. Deburde was adverse to making the race and stated that it would interfere with his business, but his friends insisted on putting his name before the people; he made a good race considering the fact that he took no part in it but remained quietly in his shop and did not even quit work long enough to vote. Carson was elected by four votes.

Not Worth the Price

In the interest of Railroad Journalism, we regret exceedingly that any paper devoted to that interest can stoop so low as the Railroad Register, of St. Louis, appears to have done in its attacks on Gen'l Shatt. While the O. & M. railway continued its cash advertisement in the St. Louis Railway Register and gave it two annual passes; that paper considered the management a good one; now that the paper does not get two annual passes and a cash advertisement, the management of the O. & M. railway is not such a great success. Those in interest understand at what a small cost the Register could have been made to sing the praises of the O. & M. railway, and therefore know what importance to attach to its statements. When railroad men fully realize the situation, they will hardly contribute to the support of a sheet which will stoop so low as to insist that it must be paid and "passed" in order to secure its friendship. The suspension of the Register would fall heaviest on itself; no other interest would suffer by its retirement. The Register at the present time is devoting its hatred to the B. & O. railroad, the Texas and St. Louis (narrow gauge) and the O. & M. railway. We will take our reputation as a good guesser that no passes are given by either of these lines.—[The "Pointer" for July, 1885]

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Managed by Jno. B. Fish.

—The rains are still passing around this place. Good rains have fallen in two to three miles of town on all sides.

—Next Monday will be the first day of the Rockcastle circuit court. The docket is very light. His honor, Judge Oswald, will not be long in dispatching the business of this term.

—Mrs. Lou Field, of Altamont, has been employed to teach the school at this place. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McClary are at this place for a few days. They are on their way to East Tenn. Miss Maggie Smith, of Paint Lick, is visiting Miss Mattie Newcomb, at this place. Miss Annie Graves, of Rowland, is spending a few days with relatives in this county. Miss Ella Ramsey has returned to Stanford.

—The democrats of this precinct made a good fight. The majority of 115 for the republicans was changed to 5 majority for the democrats. The republicans gained in all the other precincts in the county. Only about two thirds of a full vote was polled in the county. The republican majority in the county is 160, making a total majority for Ramsey, republican, in the two counties of 134, which is about 300 less than the republican majority of two years ago.

HALLS GAP, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Rev. C. C. Green's meeting at Halls Gap will probably continue until Sunday night, after which he will preach at that place the first Sunday in each month. His efforts so far have been rewarded with ten confessions.

—Mr. N. W. Sampson is rejoicing over the advent of another big boy, who put in his appearance Monday night. Mr. John M. Fields, of Halls Gap, is quite low with typhoid fever. Miss Marietta Hicks, of Luncaster, is spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. S. L. Ware.

—The "Halls Gap Minstrels" will give a big concert and supper at the new church at Rowland on Saturday night, Aug. 15, the proceeds to be applied towards defraying the expenses of building that church and the one that has just been completed at Halls Gap. They give an excellent entertainment and their motto is: Satisfaction guaranteed or your money will be refunded.

Card of Thanks.

Voters of Lincoln county, allow me to say, when I consented to become a candidate I did so from a deep and settled principle, not to use one cent of money nor one glass of whisky in order to influence a single vote, and if any of my friends have violated that principle, it was not with my consent or approbation, therefore I am not responsible for their acts. I have gone through the canvass with a clear conscience and a clear conscience. To my friends who so generously supported me I shall ever feel profoundly thankful, and to those who voted against me, allow me to say that I entertain no unkind feelings towards any one. I have been treated kindly all through the county, and have accomplished much more for the cause of prohibition than I expected to do, I therefore gratefully submit to the will of the people, as rendered on Monday last and trust I may never have cause to regret having made this canvass. Your obedient servant,
Aug. 6, 1885. P. L. SIMPSON.

SALT AND MUSTARD ANTIDOTE.—If a person swallows any poison whatever, or has fallen into convulsions from having overindulged the stomach, an instantaneous and very effective remedy is a heaping teaspoonful of common salt and a much ground mustard, stirred rapidly in a tumbler of water. It is scarcely down before it begins to come up bringing with it the remaining contents of the stomach; and lest there be any remnant of poison, however small, let the white of an egg, sweet oil or butter or hard—several spoonfuls—be swallowed immediately after vomiting, because these very common articles nullify a larger number of violent poisons than any medicines in the shops.—[Medical Journal.]

Rev. Sam Jones is being criticized for some of his rough speeches, but we will forgive him for a great deal of slang if he will come to Mt. Sterling and succeed in breaking up the "arm clutch," the method by which the walking dude appears as having arrested a weak young girl, and seems to be taking her to the lock up. A girl that will submit to the arm clutch is well that our opinion.—[Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.]

"What are you going to do when you grow up if you don't know how to cipher?" asked an Austin school teacher of a rather slow boy. "I am going to be a school teacher and make the boys do all the ciphering," was the impudent reply. The next thing that boy had to sign for was a soft cushion on the bench.—[Facts & Fictions.]

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—The election to vote an additional tax to build a public school building will be held Monday, Aug. 24th.

—The appointment of a stamp deputy at this place will be a great convenience to Garrard and Lincoln counties.

—Collector Bronston has appointed Mr. B. M. Burdett, of this place, General Storekeeper and Mr. J. P. Sandifer stamp deputy for Lancaster. Both are splendid appointments and give universal satisfaction.

—Miss Ida Cobb, of Madison county, is spending a few days with Miss Katie Walden, on Lexington avenue. Miss Leila Marksbury has gone to Flemingsburg, where she will be the guest of Miss Lola McDonald.

—Garrard county complete gives Tate 1,082; Fox, 351; Tate's majority, 651. For Senator—Rigney, 1,104; no opposition. Representative—Anderson, dem., 1,128; Baker, rep., 879; Anderson's majority, 249. For Constitutional Convention, 1,704. G. Jones Salter was elected constable.

—Mr. Ulrich Simpson, of this county, is the owner of a fine 4-year-old trotting mare that promises to develop into a racer of some reputation. With only a few months training she can trot a mile in 2:38 and improves at each trial. Her sire is Lord Bollingbroke; dam by Old Foreigner. It was this mare's half sister, that was sold by Mr. J. J. Walker for $500, a few days since. We understand Mr. Simpson has refused a large price for her.

—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Danville, Dix River and Lancaster Turnpike Road Company, on the 1st day of August, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered to be spread at large on the records of said company and copies sent to the Kentucky Advertiser, Central Kentucky News and Interior Journal, with the request to publish them:

Resolved, 1st.—That we deeply deplore the death of our late President, J. H. Bruce, who filled that position with marked ability and unsurpassed success from the 1st day of May, 1885, the day of his appointment, to the 24th day of July, 1885, the day of his death. His excellent native ability, his thorough education, sound, deliberate judgment, honest, high sense of honor, energy, tact as a financier and gentlemanly bearing rendered him peculiarly fitted for the position. He had upon him the burden of offices of Superintendent and Treasurer of this institution during the time he was President and acquitted himself with equal high honor and satisfaction in all. When he took charge of the institution it was in debt about $10,000; when his services were ended by the act of an all-wise Providence, that debt was paid off in full and a small dividend being paid to the stockholders, the road in most excellent repair, tolls reduced and the traveling public and stockholders all satisfied.

Resolved, 2d.—That in the loss of J. H. Bruce this community has been deprived of a true, faithful, upright, generous, liberal and public spirited citizen.

J. S. ROBINSON, Pres.

J. L. BACON, Secy.

—John Hunt, a colored youth, aged 17 years, was shot and killed last Monday night by Henry Clay, also colored. The killing was done on "Battle Row" and the particulars are as follows. It seems that a colored man who was wanted in Danville for some offense was suspected to be lurking around in the vicinity and Clay had been appointed by Marshal Eason to effect his capture if possible. Several shots were fired about eleven o'clock and shortly afterwards Hunt was seen to enter his mother's house. Clay, accompanied by one Jasper Overton, followed him inside and demanded that he come to them; that he was under arrest for shooting his pistol and must go with them. This Hunt offered to do if they would just allow him to go up stairs and get his coat as he was then in his shirt sleeves. They refused to do so and when Hunt started up the steps Clay ordered Overton to grab him and bring him back, which he did. On being released Hunt again started for his coat, when Clay caught him with his left hand and fired with the other, the ball taking effect in his left breast and ranging downward through the heart, killing him instantly. Clay at once surrendered himself to Marshal Eason and was lodged in jail. Overton, however, made good his escape and is still at large. At the coroner's inquest Tuesday morning the jury returned a verdict to the effect that John Hunt met his death from a pistol shot at the hands of Henry Clay, aided and abetted by Jasper Overton. Clay waived an examining trial Wednesday morning and was remanded back to jail. The colored people are very indignant and threats of lynching are indulged in.

"You may laugh and think me a vain thing," writes Mrs. J. B. C. of San Francisco, to a friend in this city, "but I have not a gray hair in my head, and yet (and to say) I am fifty and a day.
